

BALDWIN REFUSES TO STOP WAITRESSES PATROLLING

Judge Jesse A. Baldwin denied the application of George Knab, owner of a string of strikebound restaurants, for a further injunction prohibiting the waitresses or cooks from patrolling the streets in front of his restaurants.

Miss Elizabeth Maloney, organizer for the waitresses' union, agreed on behalf of the union that no further literature bearing the word "scab" would be used by the pickets.

BAD LUCK TO MARRY IN MAY, SO THEY DID IT IN JUNE

Two young couples, Lester E. Stuck, 21, and Mildred Datela, 20, 2711 West North avenue, and Thos. Pollad, 27, and Rosie Ballal, 18, 452 Belden avenue, were up in the Morals Court for living together.

"Why aren't you married," asked Corporation Counsel Reker? "It's bad luck to get married in May," sobbed Mildred. "We intended to do so today."

Reker suggested a double wedding. A collection of $25 was taken and the young people were married. Judge Goodnow officiated and Corporation Counsel Reker acted as best man.

TO VOTE ON TOLLS THIS WEEK

Washington, June 2.—That the vote on the tolls exemption repeal bill will be taken either late this week or early next week seemed assured today following careful canvass of senators who have not yet spoken.

The poll made by Senators Simmons, Lodge and Kern totals 52 votes for the repeal bill. They declare they did not include a single senator who is in the slightest degree doubtful. This would give a clear majority of nine.

Beginning tomorrow, no other business whatever is to be allowed by the committee, which will constantly press for a vote.

I WONDER

By Jim Manee.

Colonel Teddy says that he
Ate monkeys on his trip.
That raises quite a question, folks;
I guess I'll let 'er rip—
Of credit that he did this thing
I'm not trying to deprive,
But, really, I would like to know,
Did Ted "eat 'em alive?"

P. S.—Now watch him pull some monkeyshines.

WOMEN BOYCOTT MERCHANTS WHO ARE FOR BETTING.

New Orleans, La., June 2.—A women's boycott of merchants who are supporting a bill now before the legislature to legalize race-horse betting in Louisiana was launched today. The women will refuse to patronize merchants whose names appear on a petition favoring the measure.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Trading in wheat active. Prices up. Corn strong. Offerings light. Oats paralleled corn. Provisions firm and higher.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, June 2.—Pressure on New Haven put entire market to severe test. Withstood fairly well. Good support on moderate declines.

TODAY'S HEALTHOGRAM

Don't forget that microbes may be lurking about the mouth of the milk bottle. Be sure to wipe it carefully before pouring out the milk. Be sure that all milk receptacles have been thoroughly scalded before using. Milk, you know, is one of the disease carriers.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight becoming unsettled Wednesday; slowing rising temperature; light to moderate variable winds tonight increasing and becoming southerly Wednesday. Temperature Monday—Highest, 68; lowest, 58.